GoToMeeting is built for more professional collaboration.

Reliable meetings and sales demos

Make a great first impression every single time. All a prospect or customer needs to join your meeting is a web browser, no downloads necessary. You can host a large video conference with a new client or a quick conference call with a vendor from anywhere.

Join or host a meeting easily from a huddle or conference room.

Right out of the box, GoToConference has the hardware and software you need for hassle-free video conferencing. It's a great fit for meeting rooms and huddle spaces of up to 10 people.

InRoom Link integration technology lets your business unlock the value of your H.323 hardware and run large meetings with ease.

Meet from your mobile device.

Download the free app for iPhone, iPad, Android or Windows to join or host a meeting on the go. With our iOS or Android app, you can also share your entire screen with everyone in your meeting.

No downloads necessary.

Anyone can join your meeting from a web browser. You can even screen share or video chat from Chrome and Firefox too!
